LECTURE OPPORTUNITIES

Provide your information in the space below to register your group as an ISI affiliated campus group. As an ISI Group, you assist us in transmitting the case for Western Civilization to fellow students through intellectual stimulation.

ISI Groups receive priority access to all our programs. By beginning a new group or affiliating an already existing group with ISI, you can host a lecture, attend national leadership conferences, and receive free or steeply discounted books. You are encouraged to continue to sign up new students and faculty. If you sign up five or more members, you will receive a free book from ISI Books. All subscriptions and services are FREE to students and faculty, and there is no obligation of any kind.

Your information will be used only by ISI's subscription and educational services and will never be sold or rented.

Please print legibly.
