

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii

1: Three Voices of Christian Humanism

1. G. K. Chesterton: Rallying the Really Human Things	3
2. Flannery O'Connor: The Art of Incarnation	19
3. Russell Kirk: Christian Humanism and Conservatism	31

2: On the Moral Imagination

4. On Fairy Tales and the Moral Imagination	49
5. The Moral Imagination in an Age of Sentiments	63

3: Wanderings in the Wasteland

6. The Lost Children	83
7. On the Office of Being a Good Son or Daughter	91
8. Family and Christian Virtue in a Post-Christian World: The Vision of John Chrysostom	101
9. On Gay Marriage	119
10. The Virgin and the Ivy	133
11. Dorm Brothel	145
12. Huxley's Mirror	161
13. Why Should Businessmen Read Great Literature?	177

4: Politics and Freedom

14. The Narrative of Freedom	189
15. Nationalism, A Non-Liberal Assessment	201
16. Human Rights and Modern Western Faith	211
17. Human Rights and Christian Ethics	221
Notes	233
Index	243